

RINNAI WINS H&V NEWS AWARD 2010

Press release: Friday 30 April 2010

For immediate release.

Rinnai picked up the winning prize for Industrial/Commercial Heating Product of the Year, HDC Condensing Water Heater Range at last night's H&V News Awards, held at the Grosvenor House Hotel.

The best of the Heating and Ventilation industry were recognised with a coveted H&V News Award at the glamorous awards held in London on Thursday 29 April 2010.

The H&V News Awards are the most prestigious awards for the heating and ventilation industries, recognising companies for their skill and innovation.

Product of the Year categories were judged on genuine innovation and Aesthetic effect, efficiency and the demonstration of commercial success are also factors taken into account. Initiative categories were based on company progress or level of service improvement and contractor and installer categories looked at competence and professionalism alongside commercial success and innovation.

The Awards proved to be a fantastic night, bringing together hundreds of the H&V industry's professionals to honour those who have performed outstandingly over the last year. Comedian, Hugh Dennis from Outnumbered and Mock the Week hosted the ceremony and guests tried their luck at the post awards charity casino and silent auction until the early hours.

Big winners on the night included Haydon Mechanical & Electrical, W.E. Scott & Sons and the Graduate Award was won by Emma Marshall from Northumbria University. The Gold Award went to the well deserved, Trevor Hursthouse, Chairman of the Specialist Engineering Contractors' (SEC). The full list of winners is detailed below.
